Why These Styles? Why These Colors?

This collection isn't random — it's strategic.

Every frame in this catalog was selected using real-time analytics from our production line, factoring in initial orders, reorders, and Rx lab traffic across hundreds of accounts. These are the styles and colors that consistently move, not just once, but repeatedly.

We've also curated the ideal statistical mix of men's, women's, and unisex styles, based on what independent optical buyers are actually ordering and reordering. It's a data-backed blend designed to fit your shelves and your patients.

When it comes to color, we focus on what sells: black, tortoise, gray, and striated muted tones. These aren't trendy or flashy, they're timeless. Think of them as the optical equivalent of blue jeans, white button-downs, navy blazers, and black cocktail dresses. Always in style, always in demand.

Private-label success is about fast sell-through, strong margins, and reliable turns. That's exactly what this preselect catalog delivers.

These aren't basic. They're essential.
